Please initial below to show that you have read and understand The Music House policy sheet regarding payments and canceling:

_____ Canceled lessons and “no shows” cannot be made up for any reason. Please make every effort to be at lessons. Please read the Studio Information & Policy sheet and the calendar, both available on the website.

_____ Lesson payments are due at the first lesson of each month. Please communicate with your teacher if this is not possible. Otherwise, payment is expected. Please add a $15 late fee (per teacher) to payments made after the 10th of the month.

_____ Returned checks will incur a $30 fee.

_____ Students are expected to take lessons for the course of the school year (Sept.-May). If for any reason the student must discontinue lessons during the school year, it is expected that the student will give the teacher at least 30 days written notice. Notice must be given to the teacher in person. No emails, texts or phone calls will be accepted in this regard. If a student just stops coming without notice, payment is still expected for that full month. Please note: The Music House does not issue refunds.

Please CIRCLE either “I do” or “I do not” for each statement below:

- I do / do not give The Music House permission to use my child's photo (and/or video clip) on The Music House website www.musichouse210.com or for promotional advertising. I understand that if a picture/video is used no compensation will be provided and no names will be used.
- I do/do not give The Music House permission to post my child's photo on The Music House Facebook page to advertise or update followers about recitals, field trips, etc.

We require that all registering students (both new students and continuing students) make September's lesson payment by August 16th. Students will not be scheduled until the yearly registration fee and the first month's lesson payment have been received. All subsequent monthly payments will be due at the first lesson of each month, so the next lesson payment would be due at the first lesson in October.

Due to the limited amount of weekly spaces each teacher has, payment ensures us that the student is committed to their scheduled lesson time. Please understand that once a student has committed to a lesson day and time, the teacher trusts that they will honor that commitment. Thank you for your understanding in this matter. Please call the studio or text at (919) 521-0818 with any questions, or email info@musichouse210.com.

Our teachers reserve the right to discontinue lessons with students who are not practicing and making adequate progress throughout the year, and for those who routinely miss lessons.
